The Greater Seymour Trust Fund was established in 1969 by the late E. S. Welch to serve the cultural, scientific, religious, literary and educational needs of the community. The Trust receives funds from the public as gifts or bequests to be held by the trustee, JCBank.

A Board of Managers of the Trust Fund allocates the money from the Funds for a wide range of public purposes. Its purpose is to assist, encourage and promote the welfare of present and future residents of the community without regard to race, color or creed. The Board of Managers consists of the Mayor of Seymour, the President/CEO and SVP, Chief Wealth Management Officer of JCBank, and four at-large members of the community.

The fund has bank management and trust safeguards. Contributions to the trust qualify as charitable contributions which may result in income tax and estate tax savings. For information about the Trust Fund, please contact JCBank Wealth Management at (812) 524-4411 or visit our website at www.greaterseymourtrustfund.org.
